

Rights of Participants Receiving Services

Title 404 NAC 4-002.03(A)

Madonna respects and abides by the legal rights and responsibilities guaranteed to all participants under the federal and state constitutions and federal and state laws. These rights can only be modified or suspended according to state or federal law. In order to provide equal opportunities to all participants, decisions at Madonna will be based on merit, qualifications, abilities, and relevance to Madonna's stated mission. Madonna does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law. The Madonna Board of Directors and administration, including the Director of Employment Services, take responsibility for ensuring and protecting the rights and responsibilities of participants.

Madonna acknowledges and protects participants' rights under HIPAA that include: the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of his / her Protected Health Information (PHI); the right to receive confidential communications of his / her PHI; the right to inspect and copy his / her PHI; the right to request an amendment to his / her PHI; the right to an accounting of disclosures of his / her PHI. Files with this information are kept in a secure location with access limited to those responsible for handling the information.

At no time will Madonna or any of its employees treat rights as a privilege. Madonna gives participants who receive services the following rights without limitation:

1. To humane care and treatment.
2. To be free from harm in safe and sanitary conditions.
3. To services provided with the highest standards accepted in the care of adults with developmental disabilities.

27. To receive reasonable accommodation as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act, including Title II.
28. To refuse treatment and participate in all decision-making processes.
29. To legal representation; including the right to seek legal representation advocating on behalf of the participant served or to issue a complaint or grievance with Madonna or outside agencies.
30. To privacy.
31. To receive treatment, including age-appropriate services and assistance which present opportunities to increase independence, interdependence, productivity, and integration into the community.
32. The right to receive instruction to learn appropriate behaviors, skills and supports to ultimately live, work, and recreate with people who do not have disabilities.
33. The right to make choices and decisions for oneself.
34. The right to have access to information and records relating to use of participant's budget for services provided.
35. The right to access one's own residence.
36. The right to form relationships and contact or communicate with anyone.
37. The right to receive mail which has not been opened and use the phone and internet without monitoring.
38. The right to live independently in the community one chooses.
39. The right to seek and maintain competitive integrated employment when one chooses.
40. The right to seek resolution of rights violations or quality of care issues without retaliation; and
41. The right to participate in political and public life.

Madonna Employment Services Program

At no time will Madonna or any of its employees retaliate against participants served, nor withhold services and supports, due to the participant, family members, or legal representatives advocating on behalf of the participant served. This includes initiating a complaint with outside agencies.

Any proposed limitation of rights must be reviewed by the Madonna Human Rights Committee in conjunction with the ISP team. A participant receiving services and/or the participant's parents, guardian, or authorized representative, shall be informed of the participant's rights in language that is easily understood. At the time of enrollment, and annually, Madonna will ensure the participant and/or the participant's parents, guardian, or legal representative, receive a written description of the participant's rights and how to exercise them. Rights will be read and explained in the best format for the participant to understand, based on the participant's needs. If a participant has complaints of abuse, neglect or violation or limitation of rights, the participant, the participant's parents, guardian or authorized legal representative, may contact their service coordinator.

Procedural Requirements Regarding Rights: Madonna ensures that Rights and responsibilities are specified, and this specification does not conflict with Title 404. Each participant served, parent, or legal representative, is informed of the participant's rights and responsibilities, as well as types of support given, at the start of services, at the participant's annual ISP review, and when significant changes occur.

The participant and his or her family or guardian(s) are entitled to request an impartial hearing and an appeal of any decisions or actions taken by Madonna regarding the participant's identification, evaluation, program, or placement. The participant and his or her family/guardian(s) may take part in these proceedings and have an attorney represent them.

The following details the procedures:

- If the participant and his or her family/guardian(s) disagree with the identification, evaluation, placement, or with the provisions of one's ISP, they may make a request for a hearing to Madonna's President, indicating the specific reason(s) for the request. Upon receipt of the request, the President shall appoint the hearing officer.
- Madonna may initiate a hearing regarding the identification, evaluation, or placement of the participant or the provision of services for the participant. Madonna shall notify the involved parties of the specific reason(s) for the request.
- Madonna shall conduct hearings within twenty (20) business days after it receives the request, unless the hearing officer grants an extension, and at a time and place reasonably convenient to all involved.

Madonna Employment Services Program

The participant and his or her family/guardian(s) are entitled to request a review (appeal) of the hearing, should you not prevail.

The following details the procedure:

- The participant, or any party to the hearing, may petition to review (appeal) the decision of the hearing officer. The request must specify the objections and be filed with the Madonna President and the opposing party within twenty (20) business days of the date the hearing officer’s decision is received.
- Madonna must appoint an independent appeals officer to conduct an impartial review of the record as a whole. The officer may, at his/her election, conduct the review with or without oral argument. Such review shall be conducted within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of the petition to review, unless either party requests an extension of time. The appeals officer shall ensure that a transcript of the review is prepared and made available to any party upon request.
- Any party disagreeing with the decision of the appeals officer may appeal to a civil court with jurisdiction. A parent/guardian represented by legal counsel during the proceedings of a due process hearing, appeal, or civil action may be entitled to reimbursement of legal fees if the parent ultimately prevails.

This procedure does not deny the right of the grievant to file a formal complaint in federal court or with a relevant regulatory agency. Changes in the law, including timelines for filing a complaint, may affect a participant’s rights.
