

Madonna is seeking a full-time Job Coach. Job Coaches assist individuals in developing their career and life skills, which can include activities of daily living, community-based programs, and support in residential settings.

They provide direct assistance to help clients maintain employment once they secure a job and offer support to individuals both in the community and at home.

This is a dynamic position that offers flexible scheduling, a variety of work environments, and healthcare benefits. If interested, please email your resume and a letter of interest to Tabitha Keating at tkeating@madonnaschool.org.
